New Poster Added to AJA Series

The American Jewish Archives announces the addition of a new poster to its multicolor series on the American Jewish experience.

To commemorate the centenary of the East European Jewish immigrant in America, the Archives has created a poster on Abraham Cahan (1860-1951), who came to the United States from Lithuania in 1882, and became a major influence in the Jewish immigrant community as editor-in-chief of New York's largest Yiddish daily, the Forverts, and as an advocate of Americanization.

The following posters are already available in the series on immigrants from Eastern Europe:

Jewish Immigrants Arrive in New York Harbor
 The Sweatshop
 A Busy Street On The Old East Side

The above mentioned posters are available without charge for display by all schools, libraries, congregations, and organizations interested in American Jewish history. Requests from these groups must be made on official stationery bearing the organization's name and address. Individuals may request these posters at the cost of $3 each.

Inquiries concerning the entire poster series should be addressed to Ms. Wanda Reis, American Jewish Archives, 3101 Clifton Avenue, Cincinnati, Ohio 45220.
